Half-way mark at 465 Pacific

Avery Hall Investments, in partnership with Aria Development Group, announced that Boerum Hill's 465 Pacific Street condominiums, a 30-unit luxury building marketed by Stribling Marketing Associates, has reached the 50 percent sold milestone.

In 26 days, more than 15 residences have gone into contract. The building's full-floor 2,954 s/f five-bedroom terraced penthouse was one of those.

Designed by architect Morris Adjmi, 465 Pacific Street includes residences ranging from one-bedrooms to terraced penthouses with marble kitchens, artisanal details, two levels of private outdoor space and views of Brooklyn.

Each apartment will feature exquisite details such as, open-plan living, oil-finished oak floors, marble countertops, large windows, energy-efficient heating and cooling systems, and other top-tier components. The building offers a double-height lounge, a 1,300 s/f rooftop terrace, indoor parking for purchase, a fitness center, a children's playroom, and doorman service.
